

Scheme of Delegation

The Eastern Education Group (“Group”) is akin to a charitable, corporate group and the Group works together in furtherance of their common educational, public benefit, charitable objects.

It includes:

- West Suffolk College – a statutory Further Education Corporation (“Corporation”), and
- Eastern Education Group Trust – a Multi-Academy Trust (“Trust”) which includes two primary schools, five SEND schools and two sixth form colleges:
 - Abbeygate Sixth Form College in Bury St Edmunds
 - Chalk Hill in Sudbury
 - Duke of Lancaster School in Fakenham
 - Exning Primary School in Exning
 - One Sixth Form College in Ipswich
 - Priory School in Bury St Edmunds
 - Stanton Primary School in Stanton
 - Stone Lodge Academy in Ipswich
 - Sunrise Academy in Lowestoft

The Corporation and Trust work in collaboration to achieve the Group’s strategic plan. To promote and optimise understanding, collaboration and co-ordination; the Corporation and Trust appoint individuals common to key governance and leadership roles (namely: Chair, Chief Executive, Chief Financial Officer, and Governance Professional) and the Group has a shared senior executive team.

The Corporation and Trust have substantial alignment of their governance arrangements and whilst distinct and legally separate institutions, have established several Group-wide governance committees:

This document shows a high-level summary of delegated responsibility given to the:

- Members (Trust only)
- Board (Corporation and Trust)
- Committees (Group and Independent)
- Chief Executive (“CEO”)
- Senior Executive Team (“SET”) see here
- Senior Leadership Team (“SLT”) of our schools and colleges

Scheme of Delegation

The Scheme of Delegation must be read alongside the Terms of Reference of the Committees, the Financial Regulations, the Corporation's Instruments and Articles of Government and the Trust's Articles of Association, the Standing Orders and Governance Policies of the Corporation and Trust. These are published on our websites: see Corporation and Trust.

The Corporation and Trust are legally distinct institutions which retain overarching responsibility for all decisions made, irrespective of any delegated responsibility given to any Committee or individual. Moreover, delegated responsibilities cannot be amended or exercised other than by as delegated in this document, unless otherwise directed or agreed by the Corporation and/or Trust, as appropriate.

The Chair (or the Vice-Chair in absence of the Chair) has power (traditionally known as "Chair's Action") to make decisions on behalf of the Group in exceptional circumstances where a delay in doing so would be:

- seriously detrimental to the interests of the Group overall or in part, and
- it would not be possible to postpone the decision until a meeting of the Corporation and/or Trust.

Exercise of this power must be compliant with the Group's Financial Regulations.
